PORT OF SEATTLE COMMISSION
DRAFT WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Proposed March 26, 2019

I. INTRODUCTION

The Workforce Development Committee, herein referred to as “the committee,” is a special committee created by the Port of Seattle Commission. The committee will provide information, advice and recommendations about the Port’s workforce development strategy to advance both the Port’s mission to promote workforce development and to increase equity, diversity, and inclusion in all the work that we do. The purpose of the Committee is to provide guidance on how best to use the Port’s influence to provide a foundation for a diverse economy with a focus on supporting the industries necessary for Port development.

This charter defines the composition, authority, scope, responsibility, and meeting structure of the committee.

II. COMPOSITION

The Workforce Development Committee will consist of two members of the commission, appointed by the commission president at the beginning of each calendar year in which the committee is active.

Advisory members are non-voting members and will be invited to participate in committee work at the discretion of the committee.

III. SCOPE OF WORK

The work of the 2019 Workforce Development Committee shall include the following:

- A. Provide recommendations to the Port of Seattle Commission to revise its Century Agenda goals to increase workforce development by providing career and business opportunities for local communities in maritime, trade, travel, and logistics.
- B. Provide recommendations to the Port of Seattle Commission with regard to policy directive language in order to update the direction provided in the July 1, 2014, Workforce Development motion, including proposals that leverage the port’s contracting, statutory and policy authority to achieve its workforce development goals.
- C. Communicate the Port’s approved legislative agenda as it relates to creating and sustaining effective regional workforce development.

- 44 D. Provide recommendations to the Port of Seattle Commission to revise the 2015
45 workforce development five-year strategic plan.
46
- 47 E. Guide and administer consultant work to research the feasibility of a maritime high
48 school on the Seattle waterfront and help make recommendations to the Port of Seattle
49 Commission on the development of a strategic action plan, stakeholder engagement,
50 and a final detailed pro forma financial statement..
51
- 52 F. Provide recommendations to the Port of Seattle Commission on how to support regional 53 initiatives aligned with the committee’s scope of work, including, but not limited to,
54 advancement of the following:
55
- 56 1. Career Connected Learning with an emphasis on creating K-12 connections to career
57 opportunities within the maritime, manufacturing, and building trades;
58
 - 59 2. Priority Hire;
60
 - 61 3. Pre-apprenticeships; and
62
 - 63 4. Worker Training and Retention.
64

65 IV. AUTHORITY 66

67 In pursuit of its mission and scope, the committee is not legally authorized to act on behalf of 68 the Port of Seattle Commission, but is authorized to conduct the following activities:
69

- 70 A. Gather information, consider all matters within the committee’s scope of work, and 71 provide information, advice and recommendations to the Port of Seattle Commission.
72
- 73 B. Communicate the workforce development priorities of the Port of Seattle Commission.
74
- 75 C. Engage in outreach efforts and activities to gather information to provide to the Port of 76 Seattle Commission.
77
- 78 D. If the committee determines that to meet its responsibilities it needs the independent
79 services of an outside advisor or consultant with workforce development expertise, it
80 may propose the retention of such advisor or consultant for Port of Seattle Commission
81 approval.
82

83 V. DURATION 84

85 The work of the Workforce Development Committee will continue through the review and 86 revision of the five-year strategic plan and the completion of the feasibility study of a maritime
87 high school on the Seattle waterfront.
