

PORT OF SEATTLE COMMISSION
2019 AVIATION SPECIAL COMMITTEE CHARTER

As proposed May 14, 2019

I. INTRODUCTION

The 2019 Aviation Special Committee, herein referred to as “the committee,” is a special committee created by the Port of Seattle Commission. The committee will provide information, advice, and recommendations about fulfilling the port’s Century Agenda goals to meet the region’s air transportation needs at Seattle-Tacoma International Airport for the next 25 years and encouraging the cost-effective expansion of domestic and international passenger and cargo service. The committee will focus on airport capital infrastructure programs and review of Century Agenda goals as described further below.

This charter defines the composition, authority, mission, scope, responsibility, and meeting structure of this committee.

II. COMPOSITION

The Aviation Committee will consist of two Port of Seattle Commissioners appointed by the commission president after consultation with the commission at the beginning of each calendar year in which the committee is active.

III. SCOPE OF WORK

The work of the 2019 Aviation Committee shall include the following:

- A. Provide recommendations to the Port of Seattle Commission to revise, as necessary, the port’s Century Agenda Strategy 1: “Position the Puget Sound region as a premier international logistics hub” with a focus on Objective 3: “Triple air cargo volume to 750,000 metric tons.”
- B. Review and provide recommendations to the Port of Seattle Commission on progress, schedule, and budget for major airport infrastructure projects including projects currently underway.
- C. Review and recommend to the Port of Seattle Commission ground transportation access principles and goals and propose to the commission a policy to support implementation of those goals and principles by end of Q2 2019.

42 D. Review and recommend to the Port of Seattle Commission principles and goals, and an
43 implementation plan for the South King County Fund in Q2 2019. Recommend a South
44 King County Fund policy or guidance to the Commission in Q3, after public input.

45

46 IV. AUTHORITY

47

48 In pursuit of its mission and scope, the committee is not legally authorized to act on behalf of
49 the Port of Seattle Commission, but is authorized to conduct the following activities:

50

51 A. Gather information, consider all matters within the committee’s scope of work, and
52 provide information, advice, and recommendations to the Port of Seattle Commission.

53

54 B. Engage in outreach efforts and activities to gather information to provide to the Port of 55 Seattle Commission.

56

57 C. If the committee determines that to meet its responsibilities it needs the independent
58 services of an outside advisor or consultant with aviation capital project, SAMP, or 59 ground transportation expertise, it may propose the retention of such advisor or 60 consultant to the commission for approval.

61

62 V. DURATION

63

64 The work of the Aviation Committee will continue for the duration of the Sustainable Airport
65 Master Plan process.

66

67 VI. RESPONSIBILITY

68

69 A. The role of the committee chair(s) shall be to:

70

71 1. Preside at meetings and serve as committee sponsor(s);

72

73 2. Ensure that the committee is addressing the purposes described in this charter; and

74

75 3. Set committee meeting agendas.

76

77 B. The Commission Policy Manager is the committee liaison, and commission specialists
78 will support the work of the committee as assigned. The role of the committee liaison
79 shall be to:

80

81 1. Regularly update the commission on the work of the committee in memos,
82 individual briefings, and public session.

83

84 2. Support the work of the committee.

85

- 86 3. Help develop, manage, and distribute meeting materials.
87
88 4. Provide logistical support including procuring meeting rooms, scheduling, creating
89 meeting records, and providing technical assistance.
90
91 C. The Port of Seattle Director of Capital Project Delivery, External Relations, will support
92 the committee as the primary executive staff contact. The role of the executive staff
93 contact shall be to:
94
95 1. Support the committee with timely and responsive information;
96
97 2. Coordinate with other executive staff in support of the committee's work; and
98
99 3. Serve as a resource for committee deliberation.

100
101 VII. MEETINGS

- 102
103 A. The committee will meet at least quarterly and will subsequently report to the 104 commission in public session to provide transparency as to progress made in executing
105 its charter.
106
107 B. Workgroups composed of non-commissioner advisors and subject matter experts may
108 be formed by the committee to provide in-depth analysis of issues for the committee
109 and are expected to meet as frequently as needed. Workgroup meetings are not 110 considered official committee meetings for purposes of establishing a quorum or 111 management of records by the commission clerk.
112
113 C. A quorum of the committee is required to conduct official committee business. A
114 quorum is defined as the presence of both commissioners assigned to the committee.
115
116 D. Meetings of the 2019 Aviation Special Committee shall be open to the public when
117 required by applicable law or the bylaws of the Port of Seattle Commission.
118
119 E. Agendas will be prepared and made available to committee members in advance of 120 meetings.
121
122 F. Agendas for updates to the commission to be presented in public session will be
123 published as part of regular or special commission meeting notices.
124
125 G. Minutes will be prepared and retained for all meetings of the committee.
126
127 H. Records of committee meetings, including any meeting minutes, shall be provided to 128 the commission clerk for appropriate retention in accordance with applicable law and 129 best practices.
